

Grüssen von Österreich!

It can't get any prettier than a sunny day in Hallstatt—well maybe a rainy day in Hallstatt! This town is tucked into the side of a mountain, surround by a peaceful lake and Alpen mountains. It's hard to say whether the town, with it's abundance of planted flowers and well kept structures, or the surrounding nature is more beautiful. We sure wish we could stick around longer and simply enjoy every angle and slope, and at every season.

Hallstatt

Catholic Church

Bone Chapel