

Grüssen von Österreich! Salzburg

As you can see, I couldn't commit to one or two pictures. Salzburg is a mass collection of history and culture. While it would be good to pick a theme and run with it, we were determined to get it all in. We failed, relatively speaking.

All things Mozart: Platz, birth house, living house, concerts, and much more.

The "backyard" of our B&B (honest)!

Flowers growing in the cracks of the castle Hohensalzburg walls look down on the old city and Salzach river.

Noch einmahl bier, bitte. One liter is not enough.

Mirabell Gardens with unconquered Hohensalzburg on the hilltop.

We used the bus to get around.

The hills are alive with the sound of music tour.
